

Shellbrook Library E-mail Newsletter

February 2016 Programming

On Display in February

LOOK → PETRIFIED: The Library is hosting a petrified rock collection from one of its patrons. The collection includes, petrified rock, bark, potato, Brazil nut and more. Come in and see if you can identify any of the many examples of petrified items. On display January through February.

R.C.M.P. – Gerald McKay will be sharing from his collection of Royal Canadian Mounted Police collectables and memorabilia. The RCMP were officially formed in 1920 and are still serving Canada today. They are famous for their RCMP Musical Ride, which still tours Canada and internationally. The display will be on for the month of February.

Travel Night Presentation -- NEW TIME AND DATE

TUESDAY, JANUARY 2ND, at 7:00pm

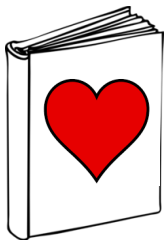

Pam Boettcher and “Students Making a Difference “will be here to highlight their trips to Ecuador and Ghana. The Students worked at building a School and Health Facility in Ecuador, and a School in Ghana.

BLIND DATE – WITH A BOOK

Not sure what to read? Take a Chance-checkout a book based on it's profile.
You might discover a new (or old) favorite!!

Don't unwrap the book until you get home. If it's not the book for you, you can Always return it and try again-no one's feelings will be hurt!

Story Time

Children 2 and Up are welcome to join us. Stories, Songs, Games and Crafts.
Children must be accompanied by a parent or guardian.

Story Time will continue into the New Year.

We are reading through the A,B,C's.

Anyone wishing to register call Dian at 747-3419, or visit us at the Library.

February 5th – O is for Owl

February 12- Valentine Stories

February 19-P is for Pyjama Party (wear your pj's)

February 26- Q is for Quiet

Book Club

Wednesday, February 10th– 7:30 pm

After School Crafting:

After School Crafting – Kindergarten and up –

Wednesday – February 10th - Snack at 3:30 – Start at 3:45

Valentine Art

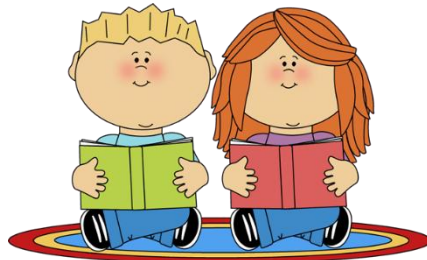

Saturday Painters:

Saturday, February 13th– 9:30 am

Something New

February 24th – 3:30 pm - Kids Book Club

Shellbrook Public Library Kids Book Club is an opportunity for your children to develop an interest in Reading and Learning through Books. Whether your child is a beginner, reluctant or avid reader, they can enjoy time together reading, playing games and doing activities that center around the world of Books. For More information contact Dian at the Library: 306-747-3419.

FEBRUARY 21 – 27 IS FREEDOM TO READ WEEK
-Stay tuned for Library “Freedom to Read” events.

PUZZLES – PUZZLES -- PUZZLES

Puzzle Exchange Ongoing – Bring a Puzzle, take a puzzle.

Services to the Community

SENIORS: “Reader’s Theatre” – Volunteers reading to seniors at the Parkland Integrated Health Facility.
February, 2nd, 3rd and 17th.

-Books to the Hospital--books delivered to the Hospital library for patients and visitors to read. A new delivery of books is taken each month. The Library is looking for donations of Magazines and Large Print books for this service.

-Can’t make it to the Library – Take advantage of our delivery service to Shut-in’s. –Call Dian at 747-3419.

ONLINE SERVICES:

The Library is excited to introduce HOOPLA- a new service being offered through the Wapiti Regional Library website (www.wapitilibrary.ca). Instantly borrow free digital movies, music, e-books and more 24/7 with your library card. Borrow up to 10 items a month.

DONATIONS TO THE LIBRARY:

Shellbrook Public Library gladly accepts donations of used books for it’s June/December Book sales.

If you wish to be removed from the Shellbrook Public Library newsletter, please notify the Librarian.

